f. Public Comment

II. PRESENTATIONS:

a. Leroy Hackley, Athletic Director, gave an athletic update. He handed out some statistics from the 2022-2023 seasons. Leroy indicated that there are enough Varsity football players to begin and finish a season. There is a new uniform rule in place for uniforms and he is working with Trophy House on that. There is also a proposal for adding Middle School soccer.

b. Earl Schaub, Transportation Director, presented transportation guidelines that were written by a group of administrators, bus drivers, and himself. They came up with some consistent guidelines and are asking that buildings include those in their handbooks.

c. Heather Lorenz-Babcock, Director of Finance, presented on the School Bond Loan Revolving Fund Resolution.

d. Heather Lorenz-Babcock and Jim Nielsen discussed the option of applying to put a Headlee Rollback on the ballot. That decision must be made at least 3 months prior to the vote.

e. Heather Lorenz-Babcock, Finance Director, shared a handout and discussed the L-4029.

f. Heather Lorenz-Babcock, Technology Director, shared an A-91T for Camera Updates. Those updates were actually approved last year under Esser Funds. These cameras will provide more clarity, more coverage, and emergency services can access them off site. The old system is 7-8 years old.

g. Leroy Hackley covered info on the Middle School Soccer Program during his athletic update.
